

TRAIN THE TRAINER

Trainers are the center piece to a memorable and successful training session. This course aims at providing trainers with the knowledge and skills required to design and deliver their training sessions. A trainer's journey on this course begins with an understanding of how adults learn, various learning styles, skills of trainers, various learning methods, activities and exercises, designing of training courses and ends with the delivery of training.

Learning Objectives

- Training design and delivery
- Presentation
- Non-verbal communication
- Public speaking
- Rapport building
- Listening skills

Who should attend?

This module is specifically designed for Officers, specialists, team leaders, business partners, line managers and trainers involved in classroom and on-the-job training.

Modes of delivery

The module shall be delivered by way of:

- Lectures
- Demonstrations
- Group presentations
- Case studies
- Assignments

Each training group will have their training resources tailor made to meet their specific training requirements. The delivery method will be adjusted accordingly.